

Parental Involvement Policy

Parents are the first educators of their own children. The aim of the preschool is to support their

- Make all new parents aware of the preschool systems and policies.
- Encourage parents on an individual basis to play an active part in the management of the preschool.
- Ensure that parents are informed on a regular basis about their child's progress.
- Ensure that all parents have opportunities to contribute from their own skills, knowledge and interests to the activities of the preschool.
- Involve parents in shared record keeping about their own child, either formally or informally.
- Ensure that all parents are fully informed about meetings, conferences, workshops and training.
- Welcome the contributions of parents, whatever form these may take.
- Make known to all parents the systems for registering queries, complaints or suggestions.
- Provide opportunities for parents to learn about the preschool curriculum and about children's learning and development, in the preschool and at home.
